

JOHN MARCHETTI CHEF DE CUISINE

With 10 years of culinary experience, Chef de Cuisine John Marchetti is at the helm of District American Kitchen and Wine Bar. During this time, he has also greatly inspired a team of culinarians.

As Chef de Cuisine, Marchetti manages the day to day operations of District American Kitchen and Wine Bar. He has been an integral part of the menu creation, as well as creating the recipes and sourcing ingredients from local purveyors. He manages the food and labor costs and develops the culinary staff.

Marchetti began his career in the Valley as a Junior Sous Chef with the Sheraton Grand Phoenix banquet team when the hotel opened in 2008. Before moving to Phoenix, he lived in Philadelphia where he was Chef at the Springfield Grill for one year. Prior to that, he worked at the Lagoon Hotel and Restaurant as the Executive Chef for seven years.

Marchetti graduated from the Restaurant School at Walnut Hill College in Philadelphia in 2003. While attending, he participated in a study abroad program that allowed him to tour and work in several kitchens across France in 2001.

When he is not cooking, Marchetti enjoys mountain biking, attending rock concerts, and watching standup comedy.
