

Eat By Stacey Weber

Stacey Weber has been offering private chef and catering services in Arizona since 2007. Her clients know she will always provide them with an exclusive and delicious culinary experience. Stacey provides an innovative and healthy approach to in home dining and catering and thrives on creative requests. Her creations always have a seasonal flare and she loves to use the flavors of the Southwest in her cooking. Stacey and her team work with top executives, athletes and celebrities on special event catering and reaching nutritional goals. Stacey gets much of her inspiration working as the Executive Chef for the Arizona Cardinals. Because Stacey feels everyone should have access to the healthiest and best locally sourced food she has made her creations readily available at her new grab and go retail location. Stacey and her team pride themselves on giving their clients creative food, exceptional service and an unforgettable dining experience.